Dear Mr. McEvoy:

On instructions from Samuel Lee of September 29, 2003, we are forwarding by Federal Express the following Patent files:

| Title | Serial No. / Patent No. | Filing Date |
|--|-------------------------|-------------------|
| Ballast with Lamp Sensor and Method Therefor | 6,222,322 | September 8, 1997 |
| Ballast with Abnormal Lamp Sensor (Con) | 09/841,969 | April 24, 2001 |
| Ballast with Lamp Sensor and Method Therefor | 10/023,213 | December 17, 2001 |

There is a pending item for Serial No. 10/023,213, namely an Office Action, identified as Paper No. 7, dated July 11, 2003, with a first due date of October 11, 2003.

Please acknowledge receipt, arrange for changing the PTO Correspondence, Responsible and FEE address records for the Q Technology cases, and send a copy to me for our records.

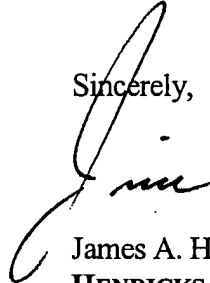

I also attach a copy of a page 5 from what appears to be a publication that might relate to U.S. Patent No. 6,222,322. The sheet came from a then-Anthony employee/consultant named Les Leslie. I have no information about the date or the source of the page.
